Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file printout exploits the nudity of a young girl to a degree that renders its availability likely to be injurious to the public good. The image is a moderately close photograph that shows only the naked pubis and thighs of a young teenage girl. No plausible alternative context or purpose is likely, confirming the conclusion that the young girl's nudity has been exploited with sexual intent.

The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and is a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
